

HAPPENINGS IN V-RMONT

(Continued from Page Four)

Mrs. Hastings' clothes were badly torn. Mrs. George Gillson and Mrs. Bert Gifford joined their husbands Thursday at their home which they recently purchased of W. N. Powell.

CAMBRIDGE.

Miss Blanche Payne is visiting in Burlington. Charles McGinn and family have moved to Randolph. Paul Swasey, a student at the University of Vermont, and Harry Blake of St. Albans, were week-end visitors at Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Newton's. Miss Marion Newton spent Monday and Tuesday in Burlington. H. A. Bulkeley is spending the week in Boston. Frank Brady of Haverfield was a visitor at C. W. Lambou's Sunday. H. N. Gray was in Burlington Wednesday. M. L. Young is in Burlington and Boston this week. The students of the Vermont Academy are spending a two weeks' vacation at their homes here. Mr. and Mrs. Tellus Stone are the parents of a son, born Sunday. Miss Vera Fullington of Hyde Park spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Julia Fullington.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

The Rev. C. C. Adams of the First Church, Burlington, gave an address to the Men's Bible class at the parsonage Wednesday evening. Clayton Scott has started and taken possession of P. L. Star's tenement. The Rev. C. C. Adams was a guest at F. M. Powell's Wednesday night. The Rev. P. B. Hyde has been called to Middlebury by the serious illness of his mother. Mrs. Morse has come to Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Kinley Tutnam of Cambridge were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins Tuesday. The schools have closed for three weeks vacation. The annual meeting of the Jeffersonville cemetery association will be held in Woodman's hall March 14. A public dinner will be served in the evening, to which all are invited. A good number of the local voters of the town have the fever blizzard to attend the town meeting Tuesday. The warm dinner at the church vestry was well patronized.

ORANGE COUNTY.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. C. C. Stevens, who is critically ill at the sanitarium, is about the same. A son was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bingham. Fred Chaffield has been at home from Barre for several days. H. with the grip. Mrs. Omond Greaser returned to Newport Thursday and her sister, Miss Emma Bickley, has also returned. Mrs. Bickley's mother, Mrs. J. J. Bickley, remained over until late in the week. Mrs. O. P. Tatro of Swanton has been at Frank Bingham's for several days. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Washburn, well known here, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at Barre, N. Y. The Rev. M. S. O'Donnell, who is recovering from a severe cold, is expected to leave for Barre in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Marble were called to Burlington last week by the death of Mrs. Marble's father, G. E. Arcand. Fred Smith has moved from rooms in the O'Connor block to the Smith farm. The ladies of the Baptist Church served a boiled dinner and had a happy time. The members of the Roman Catholic Church will hold an entertainment, St. Patrick's eve at the DuBois & Gay hall. The Rev. J. A. Lynch of Waterbury will give the address and there will also be music. Mrs. Marcella Wardwell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Wardwell, Friday. She was 75 years of age. The funeral was held at the Catholic Church and the body taken to Burlington for interment. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. R. Chambers and Miss J. N. Wardwell, and two brothers and sisters. Mrs. A. H. Powers and Mrs. J. J. Wardwell, who are the daughters of the late Marcella Wardwell, will give the address at the Catholic Church Thursday afternoon. George H. Roberts will finish April 1 a seven years' term of service as local agent for the Grand Union Tea company. Frank Porter has moved into the house on the Rowell addition recently purchased by Barney Shatt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen left Monday for Boston to remain there and in neighboring cities for a week. S. W. Clayton also went to Boston for a few days. E. S. Whitcomb of Bellows Falls came Sunday night to pass the night with his father, S. S. Whitcomb, who is slowly gaining from the amputation of his limb about a month ago. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Barre, who are the parents of the late Marcella Wardwell, will give the address at the Catholic Church Thursday afternoon. George H. Roberts will finish April 1 a seven years' term of service as local agent for the Grand Union Tea company. Frank Porter has moved into the house on the Rowell addition recently purchased by Barney Shatt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen left Monday for Boston to remain there and in neighboring cities for a week. S. W. Clayton also went to Boston for a few days. E. S. Whitcomb of Bellows Falls came Sunday night to pass the night with his father, S. S. Whitcomb, who is slowly gaining from the amputation of his limb about a month ago. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Barre, who are the parents of the late Marcella Wardwell, will give the address at the Catholic Church Thursday afternoon. George H. Roberts will finish April 1 a seven years' term of service as local agent for the Grand Union Tea company. Frank Porter has moved into the house on the Rowell addition recently purchased by Barney Shatt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen left Monday for Boston to remain there and in neighboring cities for a week. S. W. Clayton also went to Boston for a few days. E. S. Whitcomb of Bellows Falls came Sunday night to pass the night with his father, S. S. Whitcomb, who is slowly gaining from the amputation of his limb about a month ago. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Barre, who are the parents of the late Marcella Wardwell, will give the address at the Catholic Church Thursday afternoon. George H. Roberts will finish April 1 a seven years' term of service as local agent for the Grand Union Tea company. Frank Porter has moved into the house on the Rowell addition recently purchased by Barney Shatt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen left Monday for Boston to remain there and in neighboring cities for a week. S. W. Clayton also went to Boston for a few days. E. S. Whitcomb of Bellows Falls came Sunday night to pass the night with his father, S. S. Whitcomb, who is slowly gaining from the amputation of his limb about a month ago. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass, Barre, who are the parents of the late Marcella Wardwell, will give the address at the Catholic Church Thursday afternoon. George H. Roberts will finish April 1 a seven years' term of service as local agent for the Grand Union Tea company. Frank Porter has moved into the house on the Rowell addition recently purchased by Barney Shatt.

moments before, he was sitting in his chair, and soon afterwards, she heard his cry for help and on entering the office found him on the floor in a serious condition. The injury seems to be in one about half way from the knee to the hip. It has not yet been determined by the physicians, whether it is fractured or the ligaments torn. Mrs. L. H. Bunnell and sister, Mrs. H. L. Bunnell, came Tuesday to open the house of Mrs. Bunnell and prepare for the reception of the remains of their mother, Mrs. Ellen Bunnell, whose death occurred in Barre at the home of another sister, Mrs. B. H. Tenney. The remains will be brought here Wednesday and the funeral and burial will be held here. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rowell and Mrs. and Donald Salisbury returned Tuesday from Cambridge, where they were Monday to attend the wedding of the son and brother, Richard Rowell. Miss Pearl Tewksbury, who has been teaching this winter in Warren, has closed her school and returned home Tuesday. The ladies of the Baptist Church had a fair number at their boiled dinner at the chapel Tuesday noon. C. W. Proper after an illness of several months is not as well for a few days.

The result of the town meeting was as follows: Moderator, N. L. Royden, who presided with efficiency, notwithstanding that on July next he will have reached his 80th year; Town clerk, E. P. Briggs; selectmen, C. C. Gifford, A. M. Smith, A. M. Gilmann, the latter re-elected; Hester, H. M. Gaylord, W. A. Gifford, G. L. Temple; auditors, A. C. Wells, G. L. Hutchins, A. A. Priest, trustee of public money; E. A. Thomas; collector, A. H. Beedle; overseer, A. H. Beedle, first constable, D. B. Howe; town grand juror, J. J. Harrington; M. M. Wilson and D. Camp; pondkeepers, Charles Hebert, A. A. Priest, Julius Greene, survivors of wood, J. B. Adams, E. R. Hayward; weigher of coal, H. M. Gaylord; road commissioner, C. W. Danyow; agent to prosecute and defend suits, C. G. Gifford; cemetery commissioners, S. C. Gifford, H. M. Tolman and H. Allen; sextons, S. N. Homan, W. E. Adams, P. S. Ransom; trustees of public library, W. W. Tewksbury, P. G. Sprague, J. W. Fargo, E. A. Thomas, the Rev. Homer White; auditors town school district, A. A. Priest, E. W. Williams, Everett Edson. The town meeting was held in the town hall for the term of five years the Dix J. Camp mill property. The town voted to exempt from taxation the East Randolph Light & Power company. The town appropriated $500 for the support of the library and $50 for Memorial day. The vote on the fifth class license question was 100 to 10. The town voted to pay expenses of the town for the next year.

RANDOLPH CENTER.

John L. Hutchinson and Everett Edson have lately installed milking machines. Miss Alida Hyde has had two operations, one for appendicitis, the other to remove adhesions, and is recovering fast. Jack Race has hired the Hickman farm, called of Nettie Tomber for two years.

ORLEANS COUNTY.

NORTH TROY.

Mrs. Park, wife of Dr. F. H. Park, is seriously ill. C. A. McAllister and his brother-in-law, J. L. Morgan of Fairfield, have purchased of the Orleans Trust company of Newport the parcel of farm land on the corner road situated between the Allister's home. The premises formerly belonged to the late Winifred S. Elkins and more recently to the late E. T. Seaver. Mrs. Lucy E. Ladd, widow of Charles R. Ladd, and Mrs. Boardley, his sister, have been staying in town a few days. The former now lives in Sutton, Que., and the latter in New York. They but they are both contemplating a return to a residence in this village. The North Troy Fruit company is about to enlarge its present quarters in the Butterfield block on Main street by extending the width of the front store room. John R. Aklin of North Troy addressed a mass meeting at the Catholic Church of State-wide prohibition in the Congregational Church Sunday evening, March 5.

WESTFIELD.

Mrs. Walter Burnham died last week Wednesday night. The funeral was held at her late home Friday. The Rev. M. W. Barnum officiated, assisted by the Rev. E. A. Kneeland. Mrs. Burnham was about 80 years old and lived all her life here. She was a bright, interesting woman of unusual mentality and did a great deal for those less fortunate than herself. Beside her husband, who has been unable in his life-long devotion to her, she leaves one son, H. W. who has two children, the latter, Mrs. J. J. Burnham, who has moved her family to Fairbury. Mrs. Ralph Cameron of Bradenbury, Sask., was the guest of Miss Selma Goveaux last week. C. F. Hodgkinson left his home here for Monday morning. The cause was a defective sleeve upon the leg.

NEWPORT.

W. E. Rann left Sunday night for a three weeks' trip to Washington and Richmond, Va. Mrs. Leon Currier of Lyndonville has been staying with a week with her mother, Mrs. George Van Dyke of Colchester. Mrs. George Van Dyke of Colchester is the mother of Mrs. Edward Burns. The song-recital in costume by Miss Mildred Sanders of Boston, assisted by the Miss Edwins, was a pronounced success and netted $22 for Red Cross aid. Monroe Loring, who has been so seriously ill, is much better.

Mr. Samuel Hamilton is visiting his sister, Mrs. Moore Fullington of Montreal, for two weeks. Percy Waters of Montreal is a guest of Miss Ella Ramsdell. Mrs. D. J. Gregory of Lyndonville is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Moore. L. O. Drew returned Monday night from New York and Boston. Mrs. J. W. Washburn left Monday night for Washington, where she will be the guest of Mrs. C. P. Prouty. Mr. J. Wilder has moved to Coventry. George P. Smith spent the week-end in Lyndonville. A surprise box was sent last week by friends to Miss Clara Dwinell, who is in a hospital in Somerville, Mass. Sidney Davis was in St. Johnsbury Tuesday on business connected with the immigration department. Mrs. John Wilson is in Canaan. N. H., visiting her mother. Mrs. Ned Foster has recovered from her recent illness. Barbara West has been very ill with bronchial pneumonia. Miss Evelyn Giddings of Granby, Que., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker. Mrs. L. M. Bugbee was called to her home in Hardwick Tuesday by the illness of a relative, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Flint have gone to Boston to attend the automobile show and will go to New York. Mrs. J. E. Blanchard went to Burlington Tuesday. Mrs. R. B. Lindsay of Montreal has been called here by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. J. Fraser Mac Ivor. Charles Williams has resigned his position as janitor at the postoffice building, and accepted the place of assistant foreman at the C. P. R. four shed. A. H. Whitcomb is temporarily filling the vacancy. Attorney General H. G. Barber of Brattleboro was in town Monday. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Babitt of Taunton, Mass., were guests of their uncle, C. M. Bailey, over the week-end. James Blay, who lives on the road between Derby Center and Charleston, was driving over the causeway Monday when his horse became frightened by an engine approaching from behind. The horse ran, throwing Mr. Blay against a telephone pole. He was severely cut and bruised about the head. C. M. Bailey entertained the members of the customs force at dinner on the occasion of his birthday, Saturday. Miss Jane Wilson will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

CRAFTSBURY.

Mrs. Levi Richardson is seriously ill. James Wilson is in poor health. George Merrill was injured last week in a fall down stairs. He is improving. Mrs. Augusta Mould, who was very ill last week, is improving. A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Colvilleville. The Rev. C. D. Pierce was able to take up his regular work Sunday. The Craftsbury Grange reorganized Friday evening at North Craftsbury and will hereafter hold its meetings at that place in Academy hall. All quarantine for infantile paralysis was raised last Monday, there being no cases of the further trouble. The academy school opened Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Youngman visited in Stannard Sunday. Rita Smith is at home from Ellmore, where she has been teaching for the spring vacation.

DERBY.

Mr. Goodrich, who was summoned to Ohio by the serious illness of his mother, found that she had died before he had started. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son filled his place at the Silver-burn. Gordon Hay has been obliged to leave the school which he was attending in Montpelier on account of ill health. The Glee club of Derby Academy gave an entertainment in Academy hall Wednesday night. Mrs. J. W. Howe's son, who had been in the hospital, is now at home. He was in time for the funeral, and his son